

AUSTRALIANS AGAINST CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

invite you to a dinner commemorating World Anti-Death Penalty Day

The Politics of Drugs and Death

Friday October 10th 6.30pm for a 7.00 start

Western Districts Rugby F.C., Memorial Park, Sylvan Rd, Toowong

Last year, the UN called for a universal moratorium on executions. Still, hundreds of people across the world are on death row facing the ultimate violation of their human rights - some for nonviolent crimes such as drug offences. Join AACP and our speakers as we examine these issues.

Speakers

Stephen Keim, SC

Patron of Australians Against Capital Punishment

Dr Alex Wodak

President of the Australian Drug Law Reform Foundation

Tony Trimingham, OAM

Established the Damien Trimingham Foundation after the death of his son from a drug overdose

Dr Denis Bartrum

Ipswich Hospital Emergency Department

Lee & Christine Rush

Parents of a young Australian on Death Row in Bali

Cost for 3 course meal: $45 per head
